Exposed: Klaus Schwab's School For Covid Dictators, Plan for 'Great Reset' (Videos)

Economist Ernst Wolff believes that a hidden alliance of political and corporate leaders is exploiting the pandemic with the aim of crashing national economies and introducing a global digital currency.

How is it that more than 190 governments from all over the world ended up dealing with the COVID-19 pandemic in almost exactly the same manner, with lockdowns, mask mandates, and vaccination cards now being commonplace everywhere? The answer may lie in the Young Global Leaders school, which was established and managed by Klaus Schwab of the World Economic Forum, and that many of today's prominent political and business leaders passed through on their way to the top.

The German economist, journalist, and author Ernst Wolff has revealed some facts about Schwab's "Young Global Leaders" school that are relevant for understanding world events during the pandemic in a video from the German Corona Committee podcast. While Wolff is mainly known as a critic of the Mysterious Beginnings

The story begins with the World Economic Forum (WEF), which is an NGO founded by Klaus Schwab, a German economist and mechanical engineer, in Switzerland in 1971, when he was only 32. The WEF is best-known to the public for the annual conferences it holds in Davos, Switzerland each January that aim to bring together political and business leaders from around the world to discuss the problems of the day. Today, it is one of the most important networks in the world for the globalist power elite, being funded by approximately a thousand multinational corporations.

The WEF, which was originally called the European Management Forum until 1987, succeeded in bringing together 440 executives from 31 nations already at its very first meeting in February 1971, which as Wolff points out was an unexpected achievement for someone like Schwab, who had very little international or professional experience prior to this. Wolff believes the reason may be due to the contacts Schwab made during his university education, including studying with no less a person than former National Security Advisor and Secretary of State Henry Kissinger. Wolff also points out that while Schwab was there, the Harvard Business School had been in the process of planning a management forum of their own, and it is possible that Harvard ended up delegating the task of organizing it to him.

The Forum initially only brought together people from the economic field, but before long, it began attracting politicians, prominent figures from the media (including from the BBC and CNN), and even celebrities.

Schwab's Young Global Leaders: Incubator of the Great Reset?

In 1992 Schwab established a parallel institution, the Global Leaders for Tomorrow school, which was re-established as Young Global Leaders in 2004. Attendees at the school must apply for admission and are then subjected to a rigorous selection process. Members of the school's very first class in 1992 already included many who went on to become important liberal political figures, such as Angela Merkel, Nicolas Sarkozy, and Tony Blair. There are currently about 1,300 graduates of this school, and the list of alumni includes several names of those who went on to become leaders of the health institutions of their respective nations. Four of them are former and current health ministers for Germany, including Jens Spahn, who has been Federal Minister of Health since 2018. Philipp Rösler, who was Minister of Health from 2009 until 2011, was appointed the WEF's Managing Director by Schwab in 2014.

Other notable names on the school's roster are Jacinda Ardern, the Prime Minister of New Zealand whose stringent lockdown measures have been praised by global health authorities; Emmanuel Macron, the President of France; Sebastian Kurz, who was until recently the Chancellor of Austria; Viktor Orbán, Prime Minister of Hungary; Jean-Claude Juncker, former Prime Minister of Luxembourg and running to be Merkel's successor. We also find California Governor Gavin Newsom on the list, who was selected for the class of 2005, as well as former presidential candidate and current US Secretary of Transportation Peter Buttigieg, who is a very recent alumnus, having been selected for the class of 2019. All of these politicians who were in office during the past two years have favored harsh responses to the COVID-19 pandemic, and which also happened to considerably increase their respective governments' power.

But the school's list of alumni is not limited to political leaders. We also find many of the captains of private industry there, including Microsoft's Bill Gates, Amazon's Jeff Bezos, Virgin's Richard Branson, and the Clinton Foundation's Chelsea Clinton. Again, all of them expressed support for the global response to the pandemic, and many reaped considerable profits as a result of the measures.

Wolff believes that the people behind the WEF and the Global Leaders school are the ones who really determine who will become political leaders, although he stresses that he doesn't believe that Schwab himself is the one making these decisions but is merely a facilitator. He further points out that the school's alumni include not only Americans and Europeans, but also people from Asia, Africa, and South America, indicating that its reach is truly worldwide.

In 2012, Schwab and the WEF founded yet another institution, the "Global Shapers Community," which brings together those identified by them as having leadership potential from around the world who are under 30. Approximately 10,000 participants have passed through this program to date, and they regularly hold meetings in 400 cities. Wolff believes that it is yet another proving ground where future political leaders are being selected, vetted, and groomed before being positioned in the world's political apparatus.

Ernst Wolff

known critic of the establishment. Wolff suggests that the school seems to like to include even critics of the system among its ranks, as another name among its graduates is Gregor Hackmack, the German chief of Change.org, who was in its 2010 class. Wolff believes this is because the organization wants to present itself as being fair and balanced, although it also wants to ensure that its critics are controlled opposition.

Another thing that the Global Leaders graduates have in common is that most of them have very sparse CVs apart from their participation in the program prior to being elevated to positions of power, which may indicate that it is their connection to Schwab's institutions that is the decisive factor in launching their careers. This is most evident when the school's alumni are publicly questioned about issues that they have not been instructed to talk about in advance, and their struggles to come up with answers are often quite evident. Wolff contends that their roles are only to act as mouthpieces for the talking points that those in the shadows behind them want discussed in public debate.

Schwab's Yes Men in Action

Given the growing discontent with the anti-Covid measures put into practice by the school's graduates who are now national leaders, Wolff believes it is possible that these people were selected due to their willingness to do whatever they are told, and that they are being set up to fail so that the subsequent backlash can be exploited to justify the creation of a new global form of government. Indeed, Wolff notes that politicians with unique personalities and strong, original views have become rare, and that the distinguishing character of the national leaders of the past 30 years has been their meekness and adherence to a strict globalist line dictated from above. This has been especially evident in most countries' response to the pandemic, where politicians who knew nothing about viruses two years ago suddenly proclaimed that Covid was a severe health crisis that justified locking people up in their homes, shutting down their businesses, and wrecking entire economies.

Determining exactly how the school operates is difficult, but Wolff has managed to learn something about it. In the school's early years, it involved the members of each class meeting several times over the course of a year, including a ten-day "executive training" session at the Harvard Business School. Wolff believes that, through meeting their classmates and becoming part of a wider network, the graduates then establish contacts who they rely on in their later careers. Today, the school's program includes courses offered over the course of five years at irregular intervals, which in some cases may overlap with the beginnings of some of its participants' political or professional careers – meaning they will be making regular visits to Davos. Emmanuel Macron and Peter Buttigieg, for example, were selected for the school less than five years ago, which means it is possible they have been regularly attending Young Global Leaders-related programs while in political office and may in fact still be attending them today.

A Worldwide Network of Wealth & Influence

WEF's current Board of Trustees includes such luminaries as Christine Lagarde, former Managing Director of the International Monetary Fund and current President of the European Central Bank; Queen Rania of Jordan, who has been ranked by Forbes as one of the 100 most powerful women in the world; and Larry Fink, CEO of BlackRock, the largest investment management corporation internationally and which handles approximately $9 trillion annually. By tracing the connections between the school's graduates, Wolff claims that you can see that they continue to rely on each other for support for their initiatives long after they participated in the Global Leaders programs.

Wolff believes that many elite universities play a role in the process determined by the WEF, and that they should no longer be seen as operating outside of the fields of politics and economics. He cites the example of the Harvard Business School, which receives millions of dollars from donors each year, as well as the Harvard School of Public Health, which was renamed the Harvard T. H. Chan School of Public Health after it received $350 million from the Hong Kong-born billionaire Gerald Chan. The same is true of the Johns Hopkins School of Public Health, which became the Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health after media mogul Michael Bloomberg donated $1.8 billion to the school in 2018.

Wolff states that the WEF's influence goes far beyond those who have passed through the Global Leaders and Global Shapers programs, however, as the number of people who participate in the annual Davos conferences is much larger than many suspect; he mentions being informed that approximately 1,500 private jets bring attendees to the event each year, overloading Switzerland's airports.

The Alliance of Big Business & Government

The main goal of the WEF's activities, Wolff believes, is to facilitate and further high-level cooperation between big business and national governments, something which we are already seeing take place. Viviane Fischer, another participant in the Corona Committee podcast, points out that the British-based company Serco processes migrants for the British government and also manages prisons around the world, among its many other activities. The pharmaceutical industry's international reach is also considerable: Wolff mentions that Global Leaders alumnus Bill Gates, for example, had long been doing business with Pfizer, one of the main producers of the controversial mRNA anti-Covid vaccines, through his Foundation's public health initiatives in Africa since long before the pandemic began. Perhaps not coincidentally, Gates has become one of the foremost champions of lockdowns and the Covid vaccines since they became available, and The Wall Street Journal has reported that his Foundation had made approximately \$200 billion in "social benefits" from distributing vaccines before the pandemic had even begun. One can only imagine what its vaccine profits are today.

Digital technology, which is now all-pervasive, is also playing a prominent role in the elite's global designs. Wolff highlights that BlackRock, run by Global Leaders alumnus Larry Fink, is presently the largest advisor to the world's central banks and has been collecting data on the world financial system

One of the goals of the current policies being pursued by many governments, Wolff believes, is to destroy the businesses of small- and medium-sized entrepreneurs so that multinational corporations based in the United States and China can monopolize business everywhere. Amazon, which was led until recently by Global Leaders alumnus Jeff Bezos, in particular has made enormous profits as a result of the lockdown measures that have devastated the middle class.

Wolff contends that the ultimate goal of this domination by large platforms is to see the introduction of digital bank currency. Just in the past few months, China's International Finance Forum, which is similar to the WEF, proposed the introduction of the digital yuan, which could in turn be internationalized by the Diem blockchain-based currency network. Interestingly, Diem is the successor to Libra, a cryptocurrency that was first announced by Mark Zuckerberg's Facebook, indicating that a global currency that will transcend the power of either the dollar or the yuan, and managed through the cooperation of Chinese, European, and American business networks, is currently being discussed. The International Finance Forum's supervisory board includes such names as the WEF's Christine Lagarde; Jean-Claude Trichet, the former President of the European Central Bank; and Horst Köhler, the former Head of the International Monetary Fund.

Wolff further explains that the lockdowns and subsequent bailouts that were seen around the world over the past two years left many nations on the verge of bankruptcy. In order to avoid an economic catastrophe, the governments of the world resorted to drawing on 650 billion special drawing rights, or SDRs, which are supplementary foreign exchange reserve assets managed by the International Monetary Fund. When these eventually come due, it will leave these same governments in dire straits, which is why it may be that the introduction of digital currency has become a sudden priority – and this may have been the hidden purpose of the lockdowns all along.

Wolff says that two European countries are already prepared to begin using digital currency: Sweden and Switzerland. Perhaps not coincidentally, Sweden has had virtually no lockdown restrictions due to the pandemic, and Switzerland has taken only very light measures. Wolff believes that the reason for this may be that the two countries did not need to crash their economies through lockdown measures because they were already prepared to begin using digital currency before the pandemic began. He contends that a new round of lockdowns may be being prepared that will finish off the world's economies for good, leading to massive unemployment and in turn the introduction of Universal Basic Income and the use of a digital currency managed by a central bank. This currency might be restricted, both in terms of what individuals can spend it on as well as in the time frame that one has to spend it in.

Further, Wolff indicates that the inflation currently being seen around the world is an inevitable consequence of the fact that national governments, after taking loans from the central banks, have introduced approximately $20 trillion into the global economy in less than two years. Whereas previous

Democracy Has Been Cancelled

The ultimate conclusion one must draw from all of this, according to Wolff, is that democracy as we knew it has been silently cancelled, and that although the appearance of democratic processes is being maintained in our countries, the fact is that an examination of how governance around the world works today shows that an elite of super-wealthy and powerful individuals effectively control everything that goes on in politics, as has been especially evident in relation to the pandemic response.

The best way to combat their designs, Wolff says, is simply to educate people about what is happening, and for them to realize that the narrative of the “super-dangerous virus” is a lie that has been designed to manipulate them into accepting things that run contrary to their own interests. If even 10% of ordinary citizens become aware of this and decide to take action, it could thwart the elite’s plans and perhaps open a window for ordinary citizens to take back control over their own destinies.

Video Interview

Ernst Wolff is interviewed in this series of videos by Dr. Reiner Fuellmich, a German lawyer and politician who hosts a podcast called Corona Ausschuss (Corona Committee), which critically examines the German government’s response to the pandemic. These videos are taken from one of their podcasts. Also on the group chat are Viviane Fischer, a business attorney and economist based in Berlin who is a regular participant on the Corona Committee; and Wolfgang Wodarg, a former German Member of Parliament for the Social Democratic Party who has been vocal in opposing the German government’s lockdown and vaccination measures.

Fuellmich's Corona Committee is a big joke!

Where the heck is the NUREMBERG II TRIAL for all these criminals and terrorists mentioned in this article and their criminal followers continuing every day doing these crimes against humanity?

2. The Corona Committee does this (dangerous) work UNPAID
3. One of their members, Dr. Wodarg, saved many lives, when he, nearly singlehandedly (medically highly and specifically qualified) also had political clout as a German MP and stopped the predecessor of this present genocidal con, the “swine flu vaccinations” after “only” 54 or so deaths.
4. Question: What are you doing ?

Fuellmich has tried- but these legal cases are subject to corrupt judges- and can take years. He openly wondered if the legal system is hopelessly corrupt in a recent interview. He concludes the answer is yes re: the German legal system.

The courts are corrupt. Here in NZ we lost a case using the Bill of Rights and we lost because of some very BROAD clause that says it can be overwritten should there be any majority rule under special circumstances blah blah blah. So they can basically change it and manipulate it any way they like to win.

The need to be removed first THEN trialed!

Klaus Schwab is a mechanical engineer: Human beings are not persons to him; they are objects to be manipulated. He is, simply and truly, a mad social(-ist) scientist. Look at the face of Klaus Schwab: He is as ugly on the outside as he is on the inside.

This all is communism by another name: a select group of self-appointed tyrants forming the de facto Central Committee, holding all wealth and power, with the entire rest of the populace helplessly impoverished and disempowered.

Klaus Schwab is both insane and evil – as are most (if not all) of the vaunted graduates of this diabolical non-governmental organization (especially William Gates III): unaccountable billionaires and millionaires, many of whom are also unelected.

Is Klaus Schwab going to “own nothing, have no privacy, and be completely happy”, under The Great Reset? To ask the question is to have the answer.

Eastern literature alerted us eons ago of these marauding western nations that only recently started to experience “civilisation.” While Eastern nations were donning silks these nations were running around in animal skins pilfering from and plundering nations that already acquired knowledge of the cosmos, medicine and mathematics ++. Capitalism isn't a western, eastern, northern, or southern thing. And what business is it of yours, how much profit a person makes? None! It's NONE of your business in any way shape or form or yours to dictate how much or what they must do with it. PERIOD! Furthermore, you don't seem to understand that is how more MONEY is legitimately made and introduced into the economy meaning the buying power of a dollar. A dollar having a 100% worth in buying power is the goal but realistically not possible. Governments just printing more money with nothing of value to give it worth, now makes the buying power of a dollar is now 30 cents [I actually don't know the current value, I used 30 cents as an example].

It was the western countries, specifically, the U.K. and U.S.A creating the Industrial revolution. Capitalism created that and the world over benefitted. Socialism, contrary to popular belief/understanding is a Monetary System, not a type of Government. Marxism aka Communism is a type of Government. Socialism does dictate how a Government system operates and it is to the detriment of it's citizens and inevitably the Government is no longer a Democracy, Republic, Parliamentarian, it becomes Communist. Keep in mind, Marx, who was a Journalist [it's always the friggen Journalists], advanced his Utopian form of a Government system while having called it a theory. A friggen Theory by one of the most Narcissistic, in-love with himself, self-absorbed, insanely arrogant, malicious, petty, delusional Tyrant.

The word, Capitalism was made up by a Marxist (I do not remember their name. Only heard it once. Mark Levin mentioned it on his radio show, easily 6 months ago). Still using the word because it's become synonymous, what is actually being practiced is Crony Capitalism. What real "Capitalism" is actually a Free Market economy and is natural occurrence of a free people. Bartering is Free Market economics. At one point in time late B.C., early A.D. years, sticks of wood were used, notches made in it to denote a value. Actually, when the English settlers came to the now U.S., Tobacco was the currency. I never knew that until recently, thanks to a Milton Freidman video clip. You might also want to give Milton Freidman a listen. Plenty of videos on YouTube.

I'm assuming you live somewhere in Europe, more specifically, you don't live in the U.S.. We're NOT a democracy. Pure Democracies are Mob rule and fail, just like Marxist States always fail, causing suffering along the way and taking millions of innocent life when it falls. Rome and Greece were Republics, lasting a very long time. Each having ended from enemies within who were corrupted people.

the books provide is what is relevant and, beneficial. Some of the authors are Plato, Socrates, Tocqueville, a couple others that I cannot recall right now. Please don't think by my suggesting book reading, that I'm back-hand insulting you, your intelligence or education.

Here is another video that everyone should hear.

The title is: I, Pencil. I cannot stress enough how important this is.

Washington State's Governor, Jay Inslee, is one of the key players who regularly avoids scrutiny.. With ties to WEF, Jeff Bezos, Bill Gates, MckInsey & Co, CCP and more je should be high on everyone's list of concern..

He has dwelt in the shadows to long and it is apparent he has sway, including recent anointment of political peers to Biden Admin....

Beware America..

Jay Inslee is a snake in the grass..

This is an excellent analysis by Ernst Wolff – thank you for this – and I think you have certainly unearthed something very important here. However, please don't stop there. Something else I came across, when trying to understand why the state of Victoria in Australia was acting the way it was, was the UN's Strong Cities Network. This is another piece of the puzzle, IMO, that we would do well to add to this equation. There are MANY such organizations and groups – including Freemasonry, Fabian Societies, Eugenics organizations, and innumerable NGOs – which are all operating under the covers. We need to look into and be aware of ALL of them. For example, it didn't take me long to find out that of the 400 cities that had applied to become part of the UN Strong Cities Network, Victoria in Australia was in the first tranche of approvals. There were at least 2 or 3 US cities in that approval also, and many other cities. What I can say is that these plans WILL be defeated – but people remaining asleep will cause us more pain in getting there than we might have otherwise.

Here is the motive for the clot shots.

Lying by omission.

There is one thing nobody knows least nobody reports.

And that is the connection between Elon Musk Klaus Schwab DARPA Harvard and through DARPA the CIA and more.

<https://fritzfremd.substack.com/p/klaus-schwab-darpa-harvard-elon-musk>

Harvard has a Wyss Foundation in which they produced "Omnivaxx" a platform for the mrna vaxx together with programmable nanoparticles and even a smart mask indigestible chips and other utopian technology right out of Aldous Huxley's Brave new World.

Nobody seeks power to give it up, they seek power to punish us for our very existence and they all have one thing in common:

They are "possessed" by the thought that they are superior to us and have all the rights in this world and we are inferior and have no rights at all.

They are the Masterrace we are cattle.

Gosh where did I hear that before...

Finally people are starting to see the light but just a dim one.

Open your eyes and see more.

The Truth is worse than you think.

Hansjörg Wyss of the Wyss family of Schwab / Escher-Wyss Family connections founded in Harvard in 2006 the Wyss foundation where they together with DARPA and Elon Musk Boston Dynamics around you and your brain by which your thoughts and tasks can be monitored and transmitted via “Neural Link” and “Starlink” and remotely controlled manipulated and terminated.

All this nanotechnology as well as with Omnivax a “platform” for genetic mRNA disease injection plan comes from Harvard Wyss courtesy of Klaus Schwab.

It is a private Dictatorship of mostly hebrew speaking people but worse than ever.

I wrote about this a long time ago in more detail than you would like.

NGO's are a scourge on the planet. Their work has been largely for ill, making the world a worse place, less safe, less sound. They are typically led by self-aggrandize know-it-alls who know far less than they give themselves credit for. The result has been disasterous for humanity as a whole. The Global Leaders School, like the WEF is a criminal enterprise of the highest order, far worse and far more insidious than the world has ever seen before. Their toxicity is stealthy, subversive, and ultimately pure evil and if permitted to continue will lead to a hell on earth of not the final demise of humanity.

This is an incredible eye opener. Thank you. This is a real conspiracy to take over the world. Some of these important globalists I hear got together at the constellation on December 4th in Antarctica to further plans 😬.
