Fully Vaccinated Are COVID 'Super-Spreaders,' Says Inventor of mRNA Technology

On the latest episode of "The Hidden Gateway" podcast, Dr. Robert Malone, recognized for his role in inventing mRNA vaccine technology, said, "The idea that if you have a workplace where everybody's vaccinated, you're not going to have virus spread is totally false. A total lie."

On the latest episode of “The Hidden Gateway” podcast, host Jesston Williams spoke to Dr. Robert Malone, an internationally recognized medical doctor and scientist who assisted with inventing mRNA vaccines.

The wide-ranging discussion covered:

- The invention and early testing of mRNA technology, in which Malone was heavily involved.
- How governments are employing different forms of coercion to drive vaccine uptake, policies Malone said he believes are illegal.
- How public health authorities lack the normally required safety and efficacy information for a global vaccination campaign.
- How governments and public health authorities are lying to the public “for their own good.”

Malone referenced two instances where citizens are being “enticed” to take what he refers to as the “experimental” vaccine.

“There was a period where West Virginia was trying to get people to get vaccinated,” Malone said. “And so they had a shotgun lottery. And in Canada, there was a policy of offering free ice cream to children to get them to take the jab even without their parents’ approval. So those are just two particularly clear examples of unfair coercion ... It’s not actually legal.”

ORDER TODAY: Robert F. Kennedy, Jr.'s New Book — 'The Real Anthony Fauci'

Malone likened what’s going on today with COVID vaccines to the illegal medical experiments conducted by Nazi Germany. “[During the Second World War], Jews and other ethnic groups were subjected to horrible experimental medical research,” Malone said. “And they justified it by saying it was for the common good.”

Malone said the Western World “agreed we weren’t going to do that anymore. Yet, from time to time we seem to forget, and of course, Tuskegee is one example, and frankly, this is another example.”

In an attempt to clear up misinformation coming from the medical establishment, Malone said fully vaccinated individuals can spread COVID. “The idea that if you have a workplace where everybody’s vaccinated, you’re not going to have virus spread is totally false. A total lie,” Malone said.

The vaccinated are actually the “super-spreaders” that everyone was told about in the beginning of the pandemic, Malone argued.

He said:

“If you consider the scientific fact that vaccinated people have less symptoms than the unvaccinated, but can still easily spread disease, consider your fellow vaccinated worker, whose unvaccinated son brought the disease home and gave it to him ... He might not have any symptoms ... but he’ll definitely be producing the virus. And he’s going to say, hey, I can go to work today. But he’s going to be spreading the virus like crazy.”

Malone also touched on the idea of “the noble lie.”

"If the government isn't going to disclose to you what the [vaccine] risks are, and they're not going to disclose to you what's really going on because they think that you can't handle the news ... this is called the noble lie."

Malone denounced the "noble lie" as "paternalistic authoritarianism." He said the idea of governance-by-lying goes back to Plato and Ancient Greek philosophy which argues that it's "okay for politicians and people in authority positions to lie to the general public because they have special knowledge and ability to understand things ... and the general public can't cope with that level of information. And so it's okay to lie to them."

"I really disagree with this line of thinking," Malone said. "Yet it has been public policy in the United States and worldwide in public health for a very long time."

In Australia I've been told by two doctors in different clinics that I will be refused treatment in their clinics if I get sick or get Covid and must be vaccinated to enter their clinics - soon to be a triple vaccination. But if I go to hospital I will be tested and sent home and not treated until the disease, if it gets worse, I'll be put onto a ventilator and given then expensive treatments that would more than likely be deadly or useless. Where as a course of Ivermectin or Stromectrol that is dirt cheap needs to be applied ASAP.

The same kind of scam as with the AIDS virus. "We haven't discovered any reason why most people believe AIDS is caused by HIV virus. There is no evidence demonstrating that. We have also not discovered why doctors prescribe a toxic drug called AZT, to people, who have not other complaint that the presence of antibodies to HIV in their blood. In fact, we cannot understand why humans would take that drug for any reason. We cannot understand how all this madness came about, and having lived in Berkeley, we've seen some strange things indeed." ~ Kary Mullis, inventor of PCR test. Nobel Prize in Chemistry.

Most people aren't aware that Sucralose™ (a common artificial sweetener) was first developed as a potent pesticide. I only found this out after having a bad reaction to it and doing some research. All it takes is a few milligrams! I now avoid anything containing sucralose like the plague. This makes me wonder what else the FDA has "approved" that isn't safe for human consumption!

I didn't say that ALL government employees are useful idiots. That is the term is attributed to Lenin as a descriptor of a naive person who can be manipulated or exploited to advance a political cause. It is not used to describe someone's IQ.

I have worked for government agencies myself and interacted with many career goernment employees and it is my opinion that many people who work for the government do fall within that description. Look at the Post Office, the IRS, etc.

I have said in 2020 we are now at war! Silent war for now, but a war none the less. I look around me, witnessing fear and control in the name of "Health" but this reason to keep people safe is ruining millions of lives and in time billions. People forgotten how evil mankind can become. Some talk about a girl who is cute and others talk about some movie on Netflix, but i can't be bothered with that!

I can't even put my thoughts into perspective, but I know once I take a deep breath my thoughts will exhale fully. I was born to understand - I was also born to find myself in this world! Fear is my enemy, but understanding this world is like facing down the beast itself, like trying to find its weakness.

Luis, I don't claim that what I say is correct but the way I see it is that Covid was made in a lab using a data base.

It is just another nasty form of our yearly flu...have you noticed very few 'flu' cases this year or last year? Our Aust govt. stats state that in 2019 (before Covid) flu deaths were 25% HIGHER THAN Covid deaths in 2020.

It is being used as a tool to frighten us into getting jabbed with Bill Gates' vaccine, which he has actually said he will use to depopulate the world.He controls all major labs in the world with his money.

It is what is IN the jab that is my worry.With the great surge in cases, we can only assume it is the jabbed who are spreading it with their mutant variants, which could be far worse.

The World Economic Forum has been planning this for decades and it is part of their plan to control the world.

It is a steriliser, and uses a DNA changing agent to control people.

We have noticed that people around us who are jabbed, are angry, defensive and now saying we should be jabbed!

I am more afraid of the jab than I am of Covid.

I read comments on the Washington Post and am shocked at the hatred these vaccinated people have for the unvaxed. I see comments that say, "Take away their health insurance. They are taking the place of people who need to be treated. Don't give them any medical help. Fire them if they don't get a vaccine. They are willing to kill people around them. Don't let them into stores until they get vaccinated. Make them suffer because they are killing others. We'll laugh at you when you die. etc., etc.

I'm summarizing their statements. The actual ones can get really vile.

I agree that some vaccinated have become like rabid dogs (although that comparison may be doing dogs a disservice). I think it is FEAR that drives them, fear promoted by the govt. and by the media. I had the jab (AstraZeneca) and I'm not angry or defensive. I think the jabbed up people who are angry are like that out of fear - because the doubt the vaccine. Sadly I got to the party too late and will prob be dead in the next few years. Most flu cases are being labled as covid thats why the numbers are so low. I'm wondering if all the vaccines are nasty or just some of them.

In the UK there was the big push for the AstraZeneca jab but now with the under 18's and the booster only the Pfizer and Moderna jabs are offered even though we have 100 of thousand of AstraZeneca jabs in storage. I agree that covid came from a lab and not a wet market. The lab leak theory will get kicked into the long grass as nobody will allow the fact that many countries have been paying China to do all their gain of function research to get out to the public. I've been taking Vit D3 with Vit K2, clean Vit C, Zinc and magnesium.

I hope you will take the time to watch Judy Mikovits's Bit Chute video on the antidote for the jab. I have put together a list of supplements that I call my "rescue kit" that I am sending out to my family members that now regret the jab. It is all stuff that can be obtained at a local health food store. I have worked with my son since the MMR at 18 months to keep him healthy, and I can assure you that what Judy recommends makes perfect sense. The culprit is capillary clotting that will cut off blood supply to major organs. So you have it right. BUT, if nothing else, serrapaptese and nattokinase will address this. For prescription drugs I suspect that Plavix would also work. It is FAR from a done deed. Don't give up and get on these supplements and get Judy's antidote list. You will be fine because you are smart enough to have figured out the plot and to get ahead of the game. You will wind up not only alive in the years to come, but healthier than your peers because you will get on supplements and food that will be of tremendous benefit. Good luck!

Carolyn, thank you for the heads up. I have found Judy's video on Bite Chute and bookmarked to watch later today. Interestingly I ordered some pine needle tea yesterday from a little company in Wales who collect pine needs from the local forest and sell them as tea - they also make a salve out of them as well. I get all my vits from a company based in Northern Ireland because they only make clean vits - no nasties in them. I've ordered pine pollen from them - if pine tea works then the pollen - which is basically a superfood - should help get the yucky stuff out of me. After having both jabs I stopped wearing a mask indoors, but after reading that vaxxed peeps are basically superspreaders I've decided to start wearing a mask again for a while until I'm sure all of it is out of my system. Its only been 6 months since the first jab and 3 months since the second so I'm hoping that it hasn't got that much of a grip on my system.

crippled with health issues for the rest of your life. Which, of course, is the point, if you dont die, you will have one problem after another which will require medical intervention and cost money to fix. What a bunch of Det

The jabbed are superspreaders in the sense that their natural immune systems have been changed. Any virus they come into contact with, and we come into contact with hundreds, thousands daily, they will not be able to protect themselves any longer. This makes them super spreaders of the numerous virus that are mutating due to this genetic, engineered jab (which is called a vaccine) when what we are living through is a time of mass bio weapons.

12 ^ | v • Reply • Share ›

aj54 → Kim from Brooklyn • 16 hours ago

the vaxxed infected with covid have 250x the virus in their nose as the unvaxxed infected. There are 25+ spike mutations present in the Delta variant. There is some developing evidence that having the vax is causing previous viral infections to become active again, and since it turns off crucial cells that destroy common cell mutations, it is causing cancers, and they are increasing rapidly. We are definitely at war, the Chinese are waging asymmetrical warfare against us. The billion $ they gave to one of Hunter's business ventures is paying off handsomely.

Unbelievable. They sold us out to China for the almighty buck. They will suffer, somehow.

I have a few good friends that got jabbed and I am having a hard time making excuses to stay away from them until we find out more about the repercussions of the jabs. I don't want to come right out and tell them I am protecting myself because they feel "I" am the one that can make them sick. It's a very odd place to be.

Very good post, one of the best I've seen, straight and to the point. I listened to half of the 1 hr. 42 min. podcast. Malone is a developer and ardent supporter of vaccines and developer of the synthetic mRNA platform technologies, the covid shots that Malone claims are vaccines that unfortunately, according to him, have resulted in vax resistant variants. I suspect he's building support for a new vax that will absolutely put an end to the virus variants (as well as most of humankind) once and for all and we all will absolutely have to get that "safe and effective" so called vaccine. He stated that he has strong affiliations with the military and cites a quote on simplicity by physicist Richard Feynman (much admired by the mainstream science community) who worked at the Manhattan Project in the development and deployment in Japan of the atomic bomb. I have to add, there's always another, a better way, than killing as a solution to the serious problems facing humanity. These are not creative thinkers, they're destructive. Malone was and is quite aware of this information, for example, from a 2018 MIT "Technology Review" article:

~ "Experts are divided on the perils posed by synthetic biology, a term used to describe a wide set of techniques for speeding genetic engineering. In 2016, the US intelligence community placed gene editing on its list of potential weapons of mass destruction."

"These technologies in themselves are dangerous and are ideal candidates to create disease

We have spent too many hours since early 2020 trying to understand the scientific details of a coronavirus which may or may not exist, and of a drug purported to be a "vaccine." We proudly mention this detail and that, as if one is safe while the other may not be. I suggest that the only way forward is to abandon all pharmaceutical drugs, and study the effects of nutrition and environmental poisons on our bodies. No drug can compensate for crappy food and drinking water poisoned by fluoride et al.
